

Pedestrian hit in Incline; driver taken to jail

A 60-year-old man was in critical condition after being struck by an alleged drunken driver early this morning in Incline Village.

The pedestrian was on Tanager Street near Oriole Way at about 2:45am April 7 when a vehicle driven by Bradley Perry, 33, of Incline hit him, according to deputies with the Washoe County Sheriff's Office.

Perry was arrested on charges of driving under the influence resulting in substantial bodily harm.

The victim, whose hometown is unknown, was taken to Renown Medical Center in Reno.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report