

3.5 quake shakes Gardnerville area

A swarm of earthquakes continues to rattle the Gardnerville area.

While most have been less than a magnitude of 2.0, a 3.5 temblor struck at 9:31pm on June 9. It was located about 12 southeast of Garderville. At 10:15pm a 2.2 quake hit.

A 3.9 quake hit on June 6.

There have been no reports of damage or injuries.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report