

Douglas libraries to offer adult reading program

Douglas County Public Library is providing a summer reading program for adults this July.

Those 18 and older may register at the Minden Library or the Zephyr Cove Library. Participants will get the opportunity to share their opinions on the books they read.

There will be door prizes for every book or audio book completed, and participants will be entered in weekly drawings. Programs include a mug cake baking class and bad art night.

For more info, call 775.782.9841.