

Snippets about Lake Tahoe

- Go online for the latest updates on the Fanny Bridge project in Tahoe City.
- Fourteen artists were selected to use the steel from the old Bay Bridge. One creation will be a miniature train station in Truckee.
- Former women's bantamweight champion Miesha "Cupcake" Tate on July 29 will be at the Graceland Ballroom inside the Lake Tahoe Hard Rock for the Cormier vs. Jones 2 World Light Heavyweight Championship fight. Tate will do Q&A during fight transitions and take pictures with fans. Tickets start at $40. For more info, go online.
- The $57.14 million loan for the El Dorado County public safety complex in Diamond Springs through the Community Facilities Direct Loan Program has been approved.
- Paul Bancroft of Kings Beach has been appointed to Sierra College's education board.