

Best band, chicken wing competition at Squaw

This September, the Village at Squaw Valley will host a battle of epic proportions—Guitar Strings vs. Chicken Wings—with five restaurants and five bands facing off for the ultimate supremacy for best wings and best band.

On Sept. 15 from 4-9:30pm each restaurant will be cooking its signature recipes for spicy, flavor-packed chicken wings and joining forces with the region's best bands.

All proceeds benefit the Tahoe Institute for Natural Science, a nonprofit dedicated to advancing the natural history, conservation and ecosystem knowledge of the Tahoe region through science, education and outreach. Last year, Guitar Strings vs. Chicken Wings raised nearly $5,000 for TINS.

Participating restaurants include Auld Dubliner, Fireside Pizza, Rucker@Squaw, Twenty Two Bistro and new this year, the chefs from High Camp at Squaw Valley. This year's bands will include Truckee Tribe, The Connor Party, The Beergardeners, Ostricized and Chi McClean.

There is a $5 entry donation. The donation gains access to special pricing of four wings for $5, group package pricing on wings, drinks specials at the restaurants in the village and entry into a raffle.
