

New wolf pup spotted in Lassen pack

By Ryan Sabalow, Sacramento Bee

Earlier this summer, state biologists announced that a pair of wolves in Lassen County had three pups.

Turns out, they missed one.

Last week, Stafford Lehr of the Department of Fish and Wildlife told a state board that a fourth pup has since showed up on motion activated trail cameras that monitor the pack.

Read the whole story