

Work on Hwy. 89 on North Shore to cause delays

A section of Highway 89 from Squaw Valley to Truckee will be getting a new surface with grinding and paving work beginning Sunday night.

Motorists can expect delays of up to 20 minutes when the work starts tonight and goes around the clock until noon Friday. All the work is expected to be complete by the end of the construction season next month.

For real-time traffic, click on Caltrans' QuickMap.