

EDC man wins $1 million from lottery ticket

By Michael McGough, Sacramento Bee

After an El Dorado County man's wife had criticized him for purchasing lottery tickets, he started hiding in his own house to scratch them.

Hermenegildo Beltran-Meza was in the bathroom when he discovered that one of his $10 California Black Premium Scratchers was a $1 million winner, the California Lottery reported in a Tuesday press release.

Read the whole story