

Halloween event in SLT also a fundraiser

Halloween is coming early to Ski Run Marina.

The businesses in this South Lake Tahoe complex are celebrating the holiday on Oct. 28 from 5:30-8pm. Trick or treating will be available at 13 businesses.

It's not just about collecting candy. The center is also using this time to raise money and gather food for Bread & Broth for Kids. This nonprofit provides food to local youngsters on the weekend who might otherwise go without. People are asked to donate loose change or whatever cash they want to the cause, as well as bring non-perishable single serving food items youths might like.
