A Reno man was found dead Tuesday in a hotel room at the Hard Rock Lake Tahoe.

While Kevin LeRoy Edwards' death is being called a homicide, Douglas County sheriff's officials will not say how he died.

Investigators also aren't saying if the 56-year-old was a guest at the hotel. They also would not tell Lake Tahoe News who found the body. Deputies were called by the hotel on Oct. 3 at 5pm.

Edwards' driver's license listed an address in Dublin, however investigators said he had recently moved to Reno.

The victim's 2001 silver BMW four-door sedan is missing.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Investigator Nadine Chrzanowski at 775.782.9909.
