

Wildland fire in Eldorado National Forest

Wind has whipped a month-old fire in Eldorado National Forest into a more than 30-acre fire.

Lightning first started what is being called the Table Fire. It is about three miles northeast of Ice House Reservoir.

The fire was first reported Sept. 8.

As of the evening of Oct. 9 it was 5 percent contained.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report