

9-month-old, parents found in EDC shed with drugs

By Benjy Egel, Sacramento Bee

Two El Dorado County residents were arrested last week after authorities found them living in a shack with an infant.

The El Dorado County Sheriff's Office received a complaint of a car parked on private property on Nov. 6. Deputies determined that Steven Izatt, 40, and Kelli Simmons, 26, had last used the vehicle, then found the couple living in a "dangerously unfit" storage shed with their 9-month-old child.
