

Statewide gaming win up, down in Stateline

While statewide the boost in gaming revenue is being attributed to wagers on football, that was not enough to keep Stateline numbers in the black for September.

Overall, Nevada's sports books set a record at $558.4 million. This bested the record of $557.4 million set in November 2015.

According to the Nevada Gaming Control Board, the numbers in Stateline were down about 3 percent compared to September 2016 at $21,084,873. North Shore casinos were up 16.53 percent. Statewide, the win was up 3.25 percent, at $979,859,876.
