

High-end lounge opens at Reno airport

By Johnathan L. Wright, Reno Gazette-Journal

Have lounge, will travel.

Escape Lounge – a stylish new spot for food, drink, connectivity or simply watching planes take off and land – opened Dec. 15 just beyond security on the connector joining concourses B and C at Reno-Tahoe International Airport (and just in time for the holiday travel season).

Unlike many airport lounges, Escape Lounge is open to passengers in all classes of service; the fee is $40 in advance, $45 walk in. American Express Platinum Card holders receive free access.
