

Record number in Nev. enroll in health insurance exchange

By Jessie Bekker, Las Vegas Review-Journal

President Trump predicted the Affordable Care Act would “implode,” but a record number of Nevadans signed up for health insurance this year through the state’s exchange during a shortened enrollment period.

Nearly 91,000 Nevadans enrolled in coverage for 2018 through the state’s Silver State Health Insurance Exchange, data released by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services show.

That exceeded the state’s enrollment numbers for last year by about 1,900.
