

Free movie night at The Loft on Friday

The North American premiere of the award-winning Italian film “Aeffetto Domino” (“Domino Effect”) will be shown at The Loft in South Lake Tahoe on Jan. 19 – for free.

The movie’s writer, director, and star, Fabio Massa, will be at the premiere, with Q&A and meet and greet after the screening. Fabio was awarded best actor for his role in this film at the annual GioCineFest in Italy.

The movie is about life and its transformation. It’s a story of Lorenzo: sad news about his state of health will change his existence, causing a domino effect on his life and on the lives of people he loves.

Doors will open at 8pm for a pre-premiere party in the lounge. Theater doors will open at 8:45pm, with the premiere starting at 9pm. There will be an open forum Q&A with the film’s writer, director, and star Massa. There will be post-premiere party in the lounge.

Free tickets and reserved seating in the theater are available online.
