

Death in Tahoma declared a homicide

Jeremy David
Virgo

By Cathy Locke, Sacramento Bee

A suspicious death reported Sunday in Tahoma has been ruled a homicide, and the El Dorado County Sheriff's Office has identified the suspect as 47-year-old Jeremy David Virgo.

Virgo was arrested on suspicion of murder, according to a Sheriff's Office news release. The victim's name has not been released pending notification of family.

Read the whole story