

Kids to be featured for entire week at Squaw

The 9th annual Kid-0-Rama festival returns to Squaw Valley on Feb. 17-24.

This kid-focused event features live family-friendly music, complimentary treats, a daily game and craft room, skiing and riding for a good cause and more.

Disco tubing will make its Kid-0-Rama debut this year, where evening snow tubing comes alive with colorful lights, lasers and live music. The full schedule of events is available online.
