

Own a piece of 'The Godfather' estate at Tahoe

By Johnathan L. Wright, Reno Gazette-Journal

Welcome to the family.

Fleur du Lac, the estate on the West Shore of Lake Tahoe made famous by "The Godfather Part II," has only 22 residences. One of them, residence 13, is for sale for $3,749,000. Sierra Sotheby's International Realty has the listing.

In the movie, Fleur du Lac served as the family compound where mobster Michael Corleone threw a party to celebrate his son's first communion. Later, as Corleone watches from the estate, one of his soldiers shoots brother Fredo as they fish on the lake.

Read the whole story