

Athlete celebration at Sierra-at-Tahoe postponed

Jamie Anderson's media schedule is preventing her from returning to Lake Tahoe this weekend.

This means the athlete celebration party at Sierra-at-Tahoe originally scheduled for March 3 has been postponed. The resort is looking at rescheduling for later this month or in April.

This week the Meyers resident has been showing off her gold and silver medals from the just completed Winter Olympic Games in South Korea on "Ellen" and "Conan." She may be on "Saturday Night Live" on March 3.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report