

Father recalls vibrant, worldly lives of wife, son killed at Kirkwood

By Benjamin Spillman, Reno Gazette-Journal

As a young child from Belgrade in the former Yugoslavia, Olga Perkovic learned to ski on slopes in Europe.

As a young adult she helped her husband, David M. Goodstein, learn to ski when he lived in Logan, Utah, and taught physics at Utah State University.

As she approached middle age she taught her daughters Sophie and Daria and son Aaron to ski from a condo the couple bought in 2005 next to the slopes at Kirkwood Mountain Resort.

Read the whole story