

Meeting to focus on bring art to the South Shore

There will be a South Shore Arts town meeting on March 13 from 5:30-7:30pm at Tahoe Mountain Lab on Harrison Avenue.

There will be an informal pre-gathering with light refreshments from 5-5:30pm.

It will be facilitated by the Nevada Arts Council and the Tahoe Arts Alliance. The goal is to bring residents, businesses, and nonprofits together for a conversation to assess the current “state of the arts” on the South Shore.

With public input, organizers will then begin to explore, expand and prioritize the community’s vision for the arts and culture.
