

Mt. Rose in environmental phase of expansion

Comments are being taken on the draft environmental impact statement for a proposed expansion of the Mout Rose ski area.

Resort owners want to expand terrain across the highway, which would accessed by a skiable bridge. New lifts would open this terrain up to skiers and riders.

The Humboldt-Toiyabe National Forest is the lead agency.

For more info, go online.