

Verizon looking to install cell tower in S. Lake Tahoe

Verizon is looking to put up a 90-foot cell tower near Mt. Tallac High School in South Lake Tahoe.

It would be a monopine communications tower.

Public comments on the project are being taken until early May.

The Federal Communications Commission is investigating the environmental effects. Environmental concerns may be raised by going online.