

Multi-agency investigation leads to arrests in Tahoe

By KTVN-TV

Placer County Sheriff's Office reports that two Concord men were arrested on charges of burglary and vehicle theft, after a multi-agency investigation.

Placer County Sheriff's deputies stopped a truck speeding through Carnelian Bay in North Lake Tahoe on May 15 and found stolen construction tools and equipment. They say some of the equipment was covered in shards of auto safety glass, and the vehicle had just been stolen from Incline Village.

At the same time, a number of window-smash burglaries were being reported in Washoe County.
