

Stateline casino win down, statewide numbers up

Stateline casino revenue took a dive in March, with revenues down 12.84 percent compared to 2017. Revenues came in at $14.57 million.

Statewide the numbers were better. The gaming win was up 3.3 percent to $1.024 billion. This is the third straight month Nevada casinos have posted a win of more than $1 billion.

Even with March's numbers, Stateline casinos are up 2.1 percent for the fiscal year.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report