

Carson City fire 500+ acres, 30 % contained

The Voltaire Fire burning in Carson City remains at 504 acres and 30 percent contained.

Crews are continuing aggressive work on containment lines on June 14. People are advised to continue to avoid Voltaire Canyon Road.

The fire started earlier this week when two campers were burning poop in a hole, according to officials.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report