

DUI suspected in midday rollover on South Shore

A driver for Boulder Exterminator was arrested on charges of driving under the influence after crashing a company truck on North Upper Truckee Road in Meyers.

Joseph Toller, 50, of Gardnerville sustained moderate injuries in the June 25, 1:15pm accident. He as transported to Barton Memorial Hospital.

“He was going too fast and left the side of the road,” CHP Officer Mike Brown told Lake Tahoe News. He wasn’t sure how many times the truck rolled. It ended up landing on the roof.
