

Federal land managers issue fire prevention order in Nev.

By Associated Press

Federal land managers have issued a statewide fire prevention order aimed at reducing the risk of wildfires in Nevada.

The restrictions imposed by the Bureau of Land Management on Saturday prohibit the use of fireworks and certain types of ammunition and targets for shooting.

Read the whole story