

Beaver Creek burger event

Beaver Creek and celebrity chefs demonstrate how diverse the iconic American hamburger can be at the January Food + Wine event.

LTCC president talks repeatability

Lake Tahoe Community College President Kindred Murillo on March 13 speaks to Soroptimist International South Lake Tahoe about why classes cannot be repeated an unlimited number of times.

South Shore Economic Forum

South Lake Tahoe City Manager Nancy Kerry talks March 5 about what is going on in the city during the Shore Shore Economic Forum at Embassy Suites.

GoPro talk at Tahoe Snowcial

Paul Crandell, VP of marketing for GoPro, talks Feb. 28 during Tahoe Snowcial at Harveys in Stateline.

Tahoe's Dancing with Your Stars winner

Carol Chaplin, Lake Tahoe Visitors Authority executive director, won the March 1 Dancing with Your Stars competition at MontBleu. The audience voted, plus there were the judges – Pat Ronan, Marcia Sarosik and Paul Middlebrook. The March 1 event was a fundraiser for Tahoe Arts Project.

Decreasing snowfall a chilling reality for winter sports

While winter storms have blasted parts of the Midwest and Northeast, a lack of steady and deep snow – less accumulation and faster melt – has had serious effects for the ski industry. Hari Sreenivasan reports on how winter sports businesses are navigating the season as part of the Coping with Climate Change series.

USFS Chief Tom Tidwell

U.S. Forest Service Chief Tom Tidwell talks about restoration goals at the 2013 Pinchot Distinguished Lecture.

Dancing with Your Stars

Six South Shore residents will be performing in the March 1 Dancing with your Stars fundraiser event for Tahoe Arts Project at MontBleu in Stateline at 7pm.

Emerald Bay on a stormy day

Waves lap on the shore of Emerald Bay near Eagle Point on Feb. 23.

Jamie Anderson and friends at Sierra

Is there anything better than a having a bunch of your friends come to your home mountain to shred while there's perfect spring weather? In spring 2012, Jamie Anderson invited some her friends to Sierra-at-Tahoe to ride.